Congratulations to the 11 children from Mayfield Running Club who took part and completed the 2k Fun Run at Abington on Sunday. A special well done to Heinrich and Issy W who were our first girl and boy home respectively. The children were all amazing, a delight to be with and real role models for the school.

Dyslexia Awareness Books

To celebrate National Dyslexia Awareness Week (1st-7th October) Cambridge Central, Huntingdon and Ely will be hosting a collection of books about Dyslexia for Children, Parents and Adults. Cambridgeshire Libraries has worked with the British Dyslexia Association and Indigo (a local charity that gives information and advice) to produce this collection that includes dyslexia-friendly fiction, mostly for children, as well as biographies of people with this learning difficulty. Copies of the books on the list will be bought for libraries throughout the county, however, the titles catalogued as Dyslexia-Friendly will be available to reserve for free so you can access them through your local library.

A copy of the list can be found here:

https://ccc-live.storage.googleapis.com/upload/www.cambridgeshire.gov.uk/residents/libraries-leisure-%26-culture/Dyslexia%20book%20list%20leaflet.pdf?utm_medium=email&utm_source=govdelivery

You can also check out the dyslexia-friendly books in our school library at Mayfield. These books will be added to and any recommendations are most welcome.

Inspire Your Inner Archaeologist!

Please join us this year on Saturday, 20 October for our annual Prehistory and Archaeology Day, run as part of the University of Cambridge's Festival of Ideas. The event is free for all and there is no need to book in advance. The event is held at the Cambridge Archaeological Unit, 34 A&B Storey's Way, Cambridge CB3 0DT.
