

RETURNING TO LEARNING

ARE YOU THINKING ABOUT A CHANGE OF CAREER?
ALWAYS WANTED TO GET A DEGREE?

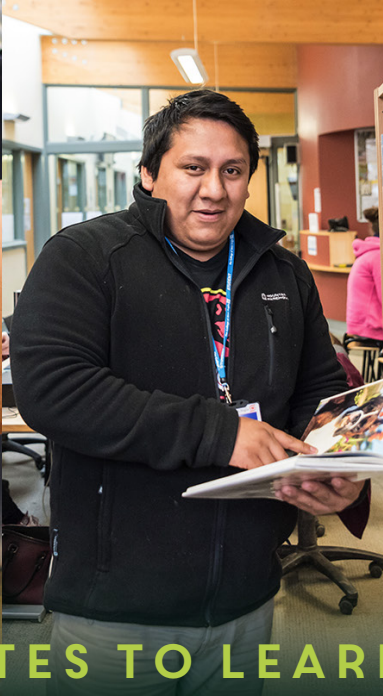

We are running a Routes to Learning course and two Access to Higher Education courses at our Cambridge campus, providing the opportunity for career progression and further study at undergraduate level

ROUTES TO LANDBASED STUDIES
ACCESS TO LANDBASED STUDIES
ACCESS TO VETERINARY STUDIES

 Access to Higher Education

The College of West Anglia

ROUTES TO LEARNING

Routes to Landbased Studies is a FREE, 5 week, return-to-study course, starting in April for anyone aged 19 or over who wish to return to learning.

ACCESS TO HIGHER EDUCATION

Access to Higher Education courses are for anyone aged 19 and over who want to gain a level 3 qualification. They run between September to June, and are designed for people who would like to study in higher education but left school without the qualifications needed to progress to university.

ACCESS TO LANDBASED STUDIES

This programme provides a range of skills and underpinning knowledge to enter into animal sciences, equine studies, and agriculture subject areas. Specialist modules (subject to availability) are drawn from a range of subject areas of animal welfare and science, equine and agriculture.

ACCESS TO VETERINARY STUDIES

This programme provides a range of skills and underpinning knowledge to enter into veterinary nursing, animal sciences or veterinary bioscience related fields at level four and above. Specialist modules such as the veterinary environment and veterinary law and animal handling will allow the insight into topics within the veterinary industry.

FOR MORE INFORMATION AND TO APPLY VISIT CWA.AC.UK

