Spring Term II – Wednesday 28th March 2023

We come to yet another end of a very busy term and the final one where we are two heads together at Mayfield. We have had a fabulous time working together over the past eight years, first as deputy and assistant heads and then as co-heads from September 2018. Mrs Stepney is on sabbatical next term but will return in September as the sole Headteacher. Mrs Ayliffe will retire at the end October, but will be part-time for the last two months, having been at Mayfield for almost 20 years.

We very much look forward to welcoming Mr Atkinson when we return after the Easter holidays. He is keen to meet everyone as soon as possible – so look out for him on the gate in the mornings.

Have a good holiday everyone and see you again soon. We will publish the Ofsted report when it becomes available.

Paula Ayliffe and Sarah Stepney

Sunflower Competition	☀ It's Spring and time for the MAYFIELD SUNFLOWER COMPETITION! ☀ Look out for the envelope coming home this week. ☀ Plant your seeds during the school holidays. ☀ Nurture them! ☀ See if your family can grow the tallest sunflower by July. ☀ Good luck and Happy Easter, from the Mayfield PTA ☀☀☀
Dinner Money Debts	As we come to the end of the financial year we encourage everyone to ensure dinner money balances are kept in order, and up to date. Regular account notifications are sent to those affected. Please forward any queries to skhan@mayfield.cambs.sch.uk
